Summary: On September 29, 2000, Les Guliasi of Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Cmmr. Duque in San Francisco. Also present were Laura Krannawitter, advisor to Cmmr. Duque; George S. Cluff and Chris Blunt of the Commission; Julio Ramos, Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA); Janice Frazier-Hampton and Sabrina Chaw of PG&E; Kimberly Freeman, David Croyle, and Petrina Burnham, all of Sempra Energy; Mike Hoover, Southern California Edison Company (SCE); Mark Joseph, representing the Coalition of Utility Employees; Sue Mara, representing Western Power Trading Forum; Sara Myers, representing the Center for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Technology; James Weil, representing Aglet; Mona Petrochko and A. Alan Comnes, representing the Alliance for Retail Markets; Peter Bray, representing The New Power Company; Michael Nelson, representing Commonwealth Energy; and Rick Counihan, Green Mountain Energy. Guliasi state that the Commission should adopt ALJ Barnett's proposed decision (PD) and reject the alternate PD (alternate). Guliasi stated that the alternate errs by concluding that the "average costs" are the equivalent of Long Run Marginal Costs (LRMC) and that ORA's assertion that all costs are variable assumes away the utilities' default service provider obligation. Guliasi pointed out that PG&E must retain the infrastructure and personnel to serve bundled-service customers, and that PG&E has the obligation to serve direct access customers who return to bundled-customer status. Guliasi stated that the only way for PG&E to reduce its procurement-related cost to a significant degree, would be for PG&E to exit that market entirely and end its procurement role. Guliasi emphasized that until the Legislature and the Commission find that procuring electricity on behalf of customers is something PG&E should stop doing, PG&E has an obligation to meet and a cost to incur. Guliasi commented that the PD adopts a uniform figure for the Power Exchange credit for each of the UDCs, and that the PD bases its result on the LRMC analysis presented by SCE, finding that it is in the interest of public policy to have a single, uniform Power Exchange credit statewide.
